

Hoof Beats...

September 2013 • Great Lakes Distance Riding Association Newsletter • www.gldrami.org

The Shore to Shore ride had a little more excitement than planned when a group from Texas came up with two trailers of 11 horses to do the rides. That looked great for ride numbers and participation but proved to add a bit more stress to all when 7 of the 11 horses they put in pens Saturday night got out and stormed through camp taking down pens and freeing up 19 other horses. Not long after midnight I woke to the sound of running hooves and saw my pen down and then heard someone say horses were running down the highway. I was one of the fortunate ones in that Adie never left camp. Linda and Donnie and Tim and Lisa's horses were also found in camp but then the hunt was on for the remaining 14. Julie Roe, Shannon and Morgan Loomis, Jim Rawski, and Leah Palastrant's horses all took off along with the Texas horses. These are endurance horses that are used to moving so some were found at least 8 miles away. As they started locating the horses most of them to the west but the Loomis horses to the east they needed a trailer to get them back in and Rose Pann very graciously gave up her two horse trailer since it was easier to maneuver down the side roads. By the start of the ride all but two of the horses had been found and brought back. One of them found the riders on the way to the vet check and Leslie Bennett caught it and gave it to the group from Texas to take on to the vet check. Leah's horse was still missing by the awards meeting Sunday night. All the vibes we sent out from the group must have helped because about half an hour after the meeting they found him and were leading him back into camp. He was unhurt and still had his blue blanket on. Sunday night was quiet as everyone was exhausted. Unfortunately there were a few more mishaps during the week as Rose Pann fell off Tuesday and broke her wrist. About 3 a.m. Wednesday morning 5 of the Texas bunch got out and took Leslie Bennett's horse with them down the road again. Cam Cooper and Victoria Matthews took off after them. They got Leslie's horse and one of the Texas group back into camp right after the rain started about 5 a.m. All of the horses were located by 4 p.m. but they opted to go home rather than move on to the next camp. Leslie's horse managed to lose her and run off and Barb Kurti caught him and brought him back. The rest of the week was pretty uneventful but Cam was ready for more loose horses as can be seen in the photo to the left.

REMINDERS:

All nominations for Hall of Fame person and horse must be received by me in time to publish in the December newsletter in order for them to be considered for that award at the banquet.

Any bylaw amendments to be made must be presented to the board by the November board meeting (first Sat. in Nov.) You can come present your suggestions in person, or give or mail them to any board member.
